Tweet: The municipal government in Konya, Turkey's most #Islamist city, dominated by the AKP, posted billboards quoting Koran 5:51: "Do not take Jews & Christians as allies. ... God does not guide wrongdoers."

Tweet: #HansWehr's #Nazi role has - after 70 years - suddenly become a public issue at the University of Minnesota "after second-year student @Rodrigo_Tojo Garcia found information online about Wehr's background."

Tweet: I spent most of the academic year 1977-78 as a fellow at @Princeton University's Near Eastern Studies Department; it was a wonderful, scholarly place.

And now? its speaker says #Israelis "are biped bloodhounds drinking the blood of one million children."

Tweet: I offer some thoughts on the Turkish invasion of Syria to @InformaleEu, an Italian publication. Excerpt: "while I enthusiastically endorse a number of specific steps [the JCPOA, Jerusalem] – I worry about the general thrust of U.S. policy in the region."

Tweet: Good to see that one important MidEast analyst, Hillel Frisch (@hilfri), agrees with my assessment that #Islamism in the region has declined. Frisch surveys a number of countries while warning that Turkey & Iran are pulling strongly in the other direction.

Tweet: Would this be an appropriate moment to recall that @RTErdogan said in 2016 that he would like powers in Turkey such as #Hitler enjoyed in Germany?

Tweet: News coverage of #Swiss elections today is agog over Green Party success.

While true, that ignores the more important fact that the Swiss People's Party (@SVPch) last election received the largest % of votes of any party in modern Swiss history & that now only slightly declined.
